Spotlight on Grand Cayman

HISTORY

It was 1503, Leonardo da Vinci was painting his Mona Lisa, Henry Tудо was building his chapel at Westminster and Christopher Columbus was on his final voyage to the Americas. He was heading from the coast of Panama to the island of Hispaniola when a freak wind pushed him off course near two tiny, low-lying mounds of earth. He named the islands "Las Tortugas," after the multitude of sea turtles that he found there. On later maps the islands were labeled the Caimanau, the Carib Indian word for "crocodile." The name "Caimanas" refers inaccurately to the iguanas native to the islands, not to crocodiles.

While the islands were frequented by ships seeking freshwater and turtle meat, they remained unsettled due to pirate raids until the 17th century. The islands' pioneers, who settled on Cayman Brac and Little Cayman are thought to have been deserters from Oliver Cromwell's army, which in 1665 captured Jamaica from the Spanish. The Caymans were magnets for buccaneers such as Sir Henry Morgan and "Blackbeard" Edward Teach.

Myths about fortunes buried here by pirates endure, although little has been discovered. Caymanians are proud of their seafaring heritage. The Cayman Islands were territories of Jamaica until 1962, when Jamaica gained its independence and Caymanians chose to remain British subjects. The colony has a British governor, appointed by the Queen who presides over an elected Assembly and the mixed Executive Council. Prosperity has arrived in the past 20 years as tourism and banking have become thriving industries.

LOCAL FLAVORS

Grand Cayman is widely known as "Brand Cayman" thanks to its stellar duty-free buys on famous name brand merchandise. Everything from china to watches to jewelry from the world's finest design houses can be found in a very small area. Cayman is also known for its pirate past - treasure coins and other nautical artifacts reflect this. Caymanian rum and rum cakes are some of the world's finest.

DOCKING/TENDERING

The ship tenders into George Town, Grand Cayman; the duration of the tender ride one way is approximately five minutes.

SHORE EXCURSIONS

GUARANTEE

Shop with confidence, knowing that all merchants on this map have been carefully selected and each offers a 30-day guarantee to cruise line guests. This guarantee ensures buyers that all recommended merchants will repair or replace any unsatisfactory item, excluding buyer's negligence, buyer's remorse and lost or stolen merchandise. For purposes of determining quality and value of jewelry related to a buyer's complaint, only appraisals secured by a buyer from independent graduate gemologists, not affiliated with any retail jeweler, will be acceptable. Please inquire about individual store return policies before finalizing any purchase.

The port shopping program is operated by Onboard Media; Inc. Participating merchants have paid an advertising fee to Onboard Media for inclusion in this program. Onboard Media handles all customer relations claims relating to the guarantee. If you become aware of a problem during the cruise, please contact the Shopping Guide onboard for immediate assistance. If a problem arises after the cruise but within 30 days of the purchase date, contact the Customer Relations Department at Onboard Media, 1691 Michigan Ave. Suite 600, Miami Beach 33139, Phone: (800) 396-2999, Fax: (305) 673-2741. Email: shoppingissues@onboard.com, Hours: Monday through Friday 9:00 am to 5:30 pm EST (Eastern Standard Time)

Please send a letter and include the name of the ship, cruise date, store name and merchandise problem. Also enclose a copy of the sales receipt and any relevant documents relating to the sale. Onboard Media will contact the recommended store on your behalf for repair or replacement, and you will be notified accordingly.
